This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GROSVENOR LIBRARY,

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Bulletin No. 1, 1903.

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE CATALOGUE OF BOOKS ON

Local History and Genealogy.

CONTAINING ADDITIONS MADE FROM JANUARY 1900 TO FEBRUARY 1903.

PUBLISHED BY THE LIBRARY,
March 1903.

PREFATORY.

This Bulletin contains a list of all additions to the department of local history and genealogy in the Grosvenor Library since the publication of the catalogue issued March 1st, 1900. These additions number 452 volumes, and embrace many important books or series such as the publications of the Harleian Society, the Holland Society's Year-Book, the series of vital records of Massachusetts towns published as the Eddy Town Record Fund Series and the Systematic History Fund Series, state publications such as the New Jersey Archives, the Colonial and State records of North Carolina and the Calendar of Virginia State Papers; such periodicals as the Mayflower Descendent, the Genealogical Advertiser, the Magazine of New England History, and the three series of Putnam's Historical Magazine, and many rare or important town or family histories. A few items included as additions on page 19 of the catalogue of 1900 have been incorporated with the present list, so that the whole of the library's collection should be included in the two alphabets.

This list is divided into three sections as follows:—

I. State, county, and town histories and records, periodicals and other general works, arranged alphabetically under the name of the author, or if anonymous, under the title. This part of the list is intended for use with Durrie's Index.

II. Index to localities in the preceding list, including a few references to titles of anonymous books.

III. Family histories entered alphabetically under the name of the family, with numerous cross-references, mostly to families not included in Durrie's Index.

Since the publication of the catalogue of 1900, the books in this department of the library have been removed to the tower room on the balcony floor of the building. This room makes a light pleasant study. It is fitted with open shelves holding about 2,000 volumes, with special catalogues, and with other conveniences for students. A few of the longer series that have been crowded out are shelved in the cases on the balcony just outside the door. Of the state, county and town histories only those for the thirteen original states have been removed to the tower room. These include the class numbers from 974 to 975.8. A few books relating to other portions of the United States that may be required can be obtained by request at the desk.

The total number of volumes now shelved in this department for the use of genealogical students is about 2500. There are still a few copies of the catalogue of 1900 available for distribution to those interested in genealogical research who have not already received a copy.
